IMPERIAL QUINCE,
ENGLISH AND CHINESE
DICTIONARY,
 WITH THE CHINESE AND ENGLISH PRONUNCIATION.
 An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong.
 For comprehensive and practical service this work stands unrivalled. All the words which the Chinese have of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous changes in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in Chinese. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Chinese and English pronunciations are given, the accents being carefully marked on the Chinese principle, thereby attaining. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have hitherto characterized Chinese publications.
 To illustrate the vast scope of the work the following lists are submitted for consideration: Chinese Vocabulary contains about 10,000 Chinese characters and 10,000 English words.
 Chinese and English Dictionary contains about 100,000 words, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 60,000 Chinese characters.
 Again, the Chinese and English Dictionary contains about 10,000 Chinese characters, whilst the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various applications of a great number of different words which have no general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto published.
 For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed in England and interested To parties resident in England and interested in China it cannot be too highly recommended.
 It comprises upwards of two thousand large quarto pages.
